

A map interface showing a network of red and blue lines. A white popup box with a close button (X) is centered on the screen. The popup contains the Japanese text "危険箇所
近づいています". The map features several icons: a blue location pin, a green play button, a blue exclamation mark, and a green oil drop. A light blue river labeled "前の川" is visible at the bottom. The left side of the screen has a vertical toolbar with four circular icons. The bottom right corner contains the text "Leaflet | © OpenStreetMap contributors".
